A nighttime photograph of two police cars on a wet street. The car on the right is facing the camera with its headlights and emergency lights on, casting a bright blue and red glow on the wet pavement. The car on the left is seen from the side, also with its emergency lights flashing. The wet surface reflects the lights, creating a shimmering effect. In the background, a street sign for 'Blanchard St' and '5th Ave' is visible. The overall scene is dark, with the primary light sources being the police vehicles.
