

AAIM BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Glenn Kalin

My name is Glenn Kalin, and I am a co-founder of AAIM. I was born in New York and raised in North Carolina and the Chicago area. I graduated from Notre Dame with a B.A. in English, and I received an M.A. in English from Northeastern Illinois. I also have the equivalent of a Master's in science education. I taught in Chicago Public Schools for 8 years and then spent 30 years teaching at Lake Forest Country Day School, where I also coached middle school volleyball for those same 30 years.

I currently reside in Bettendorf, Iowa, as I help support my two youngest children through college. My eldest lives in Arizona. One of my children is engaged to a child psychologist and lives in Phoenix, while another is a PhD student at the University of Wisconsin and is involved in cancer research at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory in California. The third is an experienced editor living in Denver.
